FRIDAY, OCT. 25, 1889.

Klickitat county is the only county yet heard from that gave a prohibition majority.

The Tacoma Daily News has become a six column eight page paper. It is much improved and is getting its work in in good shape.

The brick made at the Walla Walla penitentiary have found purchasers at Spokane Falls. The commissioners lately shipped 1,300,000 to the falls.

According to the Northwest Teacher 44 applicants out of 70 failed in King county, none receiving first grade for school teachers.

E. Mecker is having printed thirty-six signs, each thirty-three feet long, to be placed on the cars of his next special hop train.

Three bulls on exhibition at the Dalles fair got loose and fought for several hours. A calf worth $250 was trampled to death.

Salt Lake, in Utah, is reported to be eight and a half feet lower than it was two years ago.

One of the scientific magazines says that electricity is life—and maybe it is. But don't felicitate yourself upon the fact, if such it be, by shaking hands with an electric light wire.

Chicago's enterprising people have raised $10,000,000 toward defraying the expenses of the 1892 exposition. New York has raised $5,000,000. Chicago may capture the prize.

It will be found says Orange Judd's Farmer, that the horses which have steady and constant work are those which withstand the hot weather test. The idea of "resting up" horses is generally an erroneous one. The most enduring horses are those which are constantly moving.

They say that cranberries are good for corns. But what the sufferer wants is to know something that is bad for corns.

The farmers of Stevens county, Kansas, are said to be in want of the necessities of life, having suffered from four successive failures of crops. Washington has never known a failure of crops and is therefore a good place to immigrate to. Here is plenty and no one is in want.

S. C. Jefferies, of Burdett, Colorado, owns a Holstein cow that must be milked regularly three times a day. He says $1000 wouldn't buy her.

Iron and steel are steadily advancing in the East, and the indications point to very extensive deals in iron property this winter. The wave is extending westward and has already reached the Pacific Coast. Ellensburg being in the heart of the great iron district of the Pacific Northwest, will profit by this iron boom.—Capital.

The Teacher

Who advised her pupils to strengthen their minds by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, appreciated the truth that bodily health is essential to mental vigor. For persons of delicate and feeble constitution, whether young or old, this medicine is remarkably beneficial. Do you get Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"Every spring and fall I take a number of bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and am greatly benefited."—Mrs. James H. Eastman, Stoneham, Mass.

"I have taken Ayer's Sarsaparilla with great benefit to my general health."—Miss Thirza L. Cramer, Palmyra, Md.

"My daughter, twelve years of age, has suffered for the past year from General Debility.

A few weeks since, we began to give her Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Her health has greatly improved."—Mrs. Harriet H. Battles, South Chelmsford, Mass.

"About a year ago I began using Ayer's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for debility and neuralgia resulting from malarial exposure in the army. I was in a very bad condition, but six bottles of the Sarsaparilla, with occasional doses of Ayer's Pills, have greatly improved my health. I am now able to work, and feel that I cannot say too much for your excellent remedies."—F. A. Plinkum, South Molokus, Me.

"My daughter, sixteen years old, is using Ayer's Sarsaparilla with good effect."—Rev. S. S. Graham, United Brethren Church, Buchanan, W. Va.

"I suffered from Nervous Prostration, with lame back and headache, and have been much benefited by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I am now 80 years of age, and am satisfied that my present health and prolonged life are due to the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—Lucy Mott, Killingly, Conn.

Mrs. Ann H. Farnsworth, a lady 79 years old, So. Woodstock, Vt., writes: "After several weeks' suffering from nervous prostration, I procured a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and before I had taken half of it my usual health returned."
